

THE FUTURE

BEGINS

THE FUTURE BEGINS

1. Salvation is of the Lord and according to His purposes.
2. The response of the truly saved is the same, “What do you want me to do, Lord?”

THE FUTURE BEGINS

Saul's Conversion

9 Meanwhile, Saul was uttering threats with every breath and was eager to kill the Lord's followers. So he went to the high priest. 2 He requested letters addressed to the synagogues in Damascus, asking for their cooperation in the arrest of any followers of the Way he found there. He wanted to bring them —both men and women—back to Jerusalem in chains.

THE FUTURE BEGINS

3 As he was approaching Damascus on this mission, a light from heaven suddenly shone down around him. 4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?” 5 “Who are you, lord?” Saul asked. And the voice replied, “I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting! 6 Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.” 7 The men with Saul stood speechless, for they heard the sound of someone’s voice but saw no one! 8 Saul picked himself up off the ground, but when he opened his eyes he was blind. So his companions led him by the hand to Damascus. 9 He remained there blind for three days and did not eat or drink.

THE FUTURE BEGINS

1. Salvation is of the Lord
2. Our response is to do what the Lord tells us to do.
3. Our love for God shows its zeal through obedience to Jesus (John 14:15)

THE FUTURE BEGINS

The greatness of our ministry isn't measured in numbers...it's measured in how well we respond in obedience to God's call to us.

THE FUTURE BEGINS

10 Now there was a believer in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, calling, “Ananias!” “Yes, Lord!” he replied. 11 The Lord said, “Go over to Straight Street, to the house of Judas. When you get there, ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul. He is praying to me right now. 12 I have shown him a vision of a man named Ananias coming in and laying hands on him so he can see again.”

THE FUTURE BEGINS

13 “But Lord,” exclaimed Ananias, “I’ve heard many people talk about the terrible things this man has done to the believers in Jerusalem! 14 And he is authorized by the leading priests to arrest everyone who calls upon your name.” 15 But the Lord said, “Go, for Saul is my chosen instrument to take my message to the Gentiles and to kings, as well as to the people of Israel. 16 And I will show him how much he must suffer for my name’s sake.”

THE FUTURE BEGINS

17 So Ananias went and found Saul. He laid his hands on him and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road, has sent me so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” 18 Instantly something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized. 19 Afterward he ate some food and regained his strength.

THE FUTURE BEGINS

- Paul's blowing it and blinded... but he gets up to follow Jesus and makes a radical and complete turnaround.
- Ananias won't go on to write NT books, or witness to kings, but he was prepared and faithful to do his part.
