Today we will look at “The Dragnet” the parable taught by Jesus, found in Matthew 13:47-51

Week One taught us there is fixed chasm
in eternity and we must choose now.
Week Two taught us we are either for Jesus or we are against Him.

Week Three will teach us that we must know whether we are a 'good fish' or a 'bad fish'.

47 Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a fishing net that was thrown into the water and caught fish of every kind. 48 When the net was full, they dragged it up onto the shore, sat down, and sorted the good fish into crates, but threw the bad ones away.

A hand holding a magnifying glass over a landscape with a castle. The magnifying glass is held by a hand on the left side of the frame, and it focuses on a small, detailed view of a castle or fortress built on a hillside. The background of the entire image is a blurred, light-colored landscape.

49 That is the way it will be at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked people from the righteous, 50 throwing the wicked into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 51 Do you understand all these things?"

"Yes," they said, "we do."

The Kingdom of Heaven
is similar to a fishing net

The Kingdom of Heaven catches people as the Good News of Jesus Christ is shared

The Kingdom of Heaven will eventually reach a point of removing all hypocrites from it. The angels will be God's agents, and the wicked will experience torment.

We must keep dragging the net of the Good News of Jesus Christ through our world.

“One thing I have observed in all my years of ministry is that the most effective and important aspects of evangelism usually take place on an individual, personal level. Most people do not come to Christ as an immediate response to a sermon they hear in a crowded setting. They come to Christ because of the influence of an individual.”

John MacArthur, Twelve Ordinary Men

“I am convinced, by the way, that friendships provide the most fertile soil for evangelism. When the reality of Christ is introduced into a relationship of love and trust that has already been established, the effect is powerful. And it seems that invariably, when someone becomes a true follower of Christ, that person's first impulse is to want to find a friend and introduce that friend to Christ. That dynamic is seen in Philip's spontaneous instinct to go find Nathanael and tell him about the Messiah.”

John MacArthur, Twelve Ordinary Men

We must examine the authenticity of our faith in Jesus Christ now because when that day of separation arrives, time will be up.
