

2.1 Practice Daily Devotion

few years back my daughter, Sarah, went off to Australia to spend two years at the Hillsong Leadership College. I was excited for her, but even more excited for myself—at long last I had the opportunity to go to Australia to check off my #1 Bucket List item—Dive the Great Barrier Reef. So, after a year of her schooling, my wife sent me off for a two-week vacation to visit her. I made all the plans, secured a hotel in Sydney, found a Dive Shop in Cairns to get our diving certification and off I went. We spent a few days in Sydney together and then flew to Cairns. I was so excited, finally, my dream would come true, to explore the expanse and wonder of the Great Barrier Reef. It didn't take me long to realize the extra bonus God had afforded me—to do it with Sarah. What a joy! We had so much fun. After we enjoyed three days and two nights on a liveaboard boat diving the reef, we spent our last night in Cairns, having a ball. It was during that last night it dawned on me, after 20 years of being Sarah's father, my goal of parenting had been realized—Sarah and I had become best friends. Something happened down under to me and Sarah that was more important than my #1 Bucket List item. And when the day came to head back to Oregon, I met Sarah at my hotel a few blocks away from the Hillsong campus, I walked her to the corner and we said goodbye—it hit me like never before—tears welled up in my eyes, I already missed her. Just the thought of leaving her on that rock called Australia with a Pacific Ocean and the equator separating us, made me long for her. And within days, once again, my heart ached to see her, to be with her again. Why? Love, deep relationship.

Over the years, I've come to realize a similar phenomenon with God. To date, I've been reading my Bible and journaling/meditating on scripture daily for almost twenty years. Oh yeah, there are days I've skipped my Bible reading and journaling, but when that happens, I've come to miss Him. Why? Love. It's been said that God has no favorites, just intimates. Jesus was the model for us of being the Father's intimate, and I believe God desires each of us to be one too. Honestly, I think I am one now. But anyone can become one. The Lord longs for intimacy and deep friendship with all His children. God is ready. We have a role to play.

Again, our model for intimacy with God is Jesus. "Before daybreak the next morning, Jesus got up and went out to an isolated place to pray" (Mark 10:35 NLT). Time and again, Jesus placed a huge value on spending quiet time with the Father. I'm convinced Jesus loved to spend time with His Father and knew it was essential to His purpose and mission on this earth. We need to ask ourselves, "If Jesus needed to spend regular quiet time with the Father, how much more do we need to?

FEED or BE FED?

Picture a calendar with a plate of food on it for every day of the week as depicted above. Let's say Sunday there is a huge platter—a feast scheduled. That's the weekend church service! Your pastor works hard in his spiritual kitchen every week to cook an amazing feast to serve you and all who come to church on Sunday morning. Question: After you "eat" his feast, when will you be hungry again? When will you miss being fed? Monday? Tuesday? I can tell you with certainty, if you wait to eat 'til the next Sunday, you will starve to death! Yet that's what many Christ-followers do.

We all need to be fed spiritually. The best and most nourishing way to be fed is to feed ourselves, by praying, reading scripture and journaling daily. Here's something to consider. Either we take responsibility for our own spiritual growth and read scripture daily or we will be fed by something else—in most cases—the devil. See, once again, we are spiritual beings and we need spiritual input. We cannot remain status quo. Either we're moving toward God intentionally, or moving away. There is no middle ground. We'll end up consuming much of the spiritual trash that comes out in some movies, on the internet and even these days in many sitcoms.

God says, we are in a spiritual battle and calls us to armor up (Ephesians 6). Picture a real live battlefield. Can you imagine army troops walking out in the line of fire naked—no training, no clothes, no gun, no helmet, no nothing and being surprised that they took a round from the enemy in the leg or arm or chest. Guess what? There is a spiritual war raging all around us and yet many Christfollowers do exactly that every day. We wake up, smart phone in hand, checking out social media, perhaps posting something on Instagram or Snapchat, perusing other posts or pages sometimes for fifteen minutes or sometimes for an hour or more prior to heading out onto the battlefield of life with no thought of putting on our spiritual armor, which that is incredibly dangerous. Spending time with God, reading scripture, praying and journaling is a key, timetested method to armor up for your day in the spiritual realm, which, by the way, is everywhere.

We are most protected and most satisfied when we spend time with God in His Word and reflect on and apply His Word to our lives on a daily basis. It's the key spiritual discipline for growing. But the other side of that is, if we don't feed ourselves spiritually, the devil and his cronies will whisper seeds of discord and dissatisfaction into our lives. That's what the devil does: sows seeds of division, dissension, discouragement, dissatisfaction, bitterness, and unforgiveness into our lives. He literally "disses us" in every conceivable way and place. He does it in marriages, families, parenting, businesses, churches, relationships, and individual lives.

If you're dissatisfied with your church, I can confidently predict that you're not reading scripture daily and "cooking your own meals." Or you're drawing comparisons to some other church that you might think is better than yours. You're likely looking for someone else to feed you and satisfy all your spiritual needs. Ultimately, that's pretty self-centered. In addition, it's spiritually and emotionally immature. In America, studies have been done that show only about 10 percent of Bible-believing Christians read their Bible regularly. God spoke to this through the prophet Amos:

"The time is surely coming," says the Sovereign Lord, "When I will send a famine on the land—not a famine of bread or water, but of hearing the words of the Lord." Amos 8:11 (NLT)

God Himself sends this famine on the land. A spiritual famine from not consuming the Word of the Lord. Ironically, in the next verse God says:

> "People will stagger from sea to sea and wander from border to border searching for the word of the Lord, but they will not find it." Amos 8:12 (NLT)

That is a picture of people who are spiritually famished. As I read this, my first thought to God is, "Why, Lord, would you not allow people to find your Word? God, isn't that what you want? Surely it is!" I've concluded that most people are looking in all the wrong places. We're looking for others to feed us. The right pastor, the amazing radio preacher, the new Christian song, the great rock star pastor blogger. Hey, nothing wrong with these if they're in addition to your own quiet time with God. Just don't make it your primary means to being fed. That stuff simply becomes spiritual fast food! No one can eat for you and daily spiritual bread can't be saved up. But, we go days without eating. The result is that we're starving while our most nourishing meals are waiting to be cooked—as our Bibles sit untouched in our bookshelves and nightstands. Think about it: amazing spiritual meals, just sitting there waiting as we starve and exclaim our dissatisfaction to our church leaders.

What's the answer to the famine? We need to learn to cook our own spiritual meals, friends. They are incredibly encouraging to our souls. When we feed ourselves on God's Word daily, an amazing thing happens—the spiritual feasts we are served on Sunday taste so much better. If you've been a Christ-follower for five, ten, twenty years or more and ever say, "I'm not really being fed by my pastor," that's more likely a commentary on your own spiritual maturity than the ineptness of his messages. Feed yourself during the week, and I promise you it will provide sumptuous seasoning for his or her messages. This is the single most important thing we can do, not only spiritually, but in our lives. It will impact our marriages, our friendships, our parenting—everything. Jesus promises it will bear amazing fruit in every area of our lives:

"Cling to the vine and you will bear much fruit... fruit that lasts." (John 15).

And the best way to cling to the vine is to have daily intake of God's Word in our lives. You get this one right and it will enormously impact every other milestone point! You will grow like wild-fire! Great books have been written on this that have helped me get into the Bible over the years. Here are a few: Too Busy Not to Pray by Bill Hybels. The Divine Mentor by Wayne Cordeiro is perhaps the best book I've ever read on the subject. Wayne's Bible reading plan and SOAP method is what I recommend for our entire church body. You can find the SOAP method and a daily Bible reading plan, that will work for you, in the appendix in the back of this book.

Get this, I'm for praying on the fly: while I'm driving, while I'm waiting in line at the store—anywhere really. But I believe the God of the universe deserves and desires a daily segment of time where I give him my undivided attention. I mean, if the President of the United States knocked on your door and wanted to spend thirty minutes just with you, would you be texting your friends or busy doing something else while he was there with you? Sure, a selfie would be fine! But I'm pretty sure you'd give him your undivided attention, no matter what you think of him. How much more should we carve out a daily quiet time with our almighty God to give Him His rightful honor and respect?

My typical daily quiet time consists of first making a pot of coffee early in the morning—gotta have coffee! Then I find my "dad" chair in the living room, get on my knees and pray, thanking God for another day and praying for my loved ones and any other issues people in my life may have. I also often ask God to show me my sins! I don't like praying that, because He just about always does. I then ask Him for forgiveness. Then I look at my Bible reading plan app and see what I'm scheduled to read that particular day. I read through the Bible every year cover to cover and the New Testament twice a year. I often ask God to show me a verse He wants me to apply to my life. As stated in the above paragraph then I SOAP on that verse and end it with some specific prayer, most often including blessings for every family member by name, Ann, Sarah, Elliot, Willie, and Nathan, so far. I also ask Jesus my King, Savior, and Lord to lead me that day. I ask the Holy Spirit to fill me and provide counsel for me that day and I ask my Abba/Father/Daddy to use me to advance His kingdom that day. The cool thing is, I have about 40 journals from the past 20 years filled with Bible verses, thoughts, meditations and prayers. It's truly radically changed my life.

Hint for leaders: If you're a preacher, teacher or youth pastor or leader, I highly recommend every now and then, at certain points in the middle of your message, to pause and grab your journal and share a pertinent journal entry—your SOAP. It reminds your flock of the importance of a daily quiet time. It's great modeling and it leaks all over in a very good way!

Parents, get up a little earlier to spend time with God and let your kids "catch" you doing it. My oldest son, Willie, and my daughter, Sarah, and her husband, Elliot, all young adults now, do this on a daily basis. Most parents would agree that we want our children to be successful in life. It's my strong conviction that success is spelled J-E-S-U-S! They don't need to go to the best college or have the awesome white collar job. They can be enormously successful and have a hugely fruitful, fulfilling life if they are a butcher, baker or candlestick maker, as long as they cling to Jesus. That's not my idea, it's Jesus' promise!

So, where are you? Read the following paragraph and score yourself. If you already do a regular quiet time, be generous in your assessment. If there are some things you might embrace that you've learned here, just make a note of it. If you think you're apt to employ this key spiritual discipline and haven't before, it's okay to give yourself a 1 now. As I stated above, if you diligently begin to do this one, it will impact every other milestone point. I promise! Remember, you can score yourself again in a few months to see all the progress you've made. So, go for it.

Memory verse: John 15:5 (NIV) "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

Questions for Further Reflection and Discussion

- 1. What was most impactful for you about this chapter?
- 2. What one thing from this chapter are you going to start doing and why?
- 3. Consider and reflect on the above memory verse spoken by Jesus. What are implications for your life?
- 4. How does the idea that clinging to Jesus ultimately will be the primary factor for success in life strike you?
- 5. What do you think of the title of Bill Hybels' book, Too Busy Not To Pray? Do you get it?
- 6. Are you prone to be distracted when you pray or have a quiet time? How can you discipline yourself to give God your undivided attention for a period of time each day?

SOAPING MODEL and Bible Reading Plan

OAP is a great tool to use scripture to wash your soul. It's really simple. The following are some simple steps to help you embrace SOAPing:

Step 1—Pray. Something like this: "Jesus, you said in John 16 that your Spirit would guide me in all truth. So, I'm listening. Teach me today as I read the Bible.

Step 2—Find the Scriptures for today in the Bible Reading Plan on the next pages.

Step 3—Read the assigned passages. Note if you choose the "Milestone 1" plan, it will take you through the whole New Testament in one year. If you're at Milestone 2 in your Spiritual Journey, choose the "Milestone 2" plan. It will get you through the whole Bible in a year. If you are at Milestone 3 in your Spiritual Journey, choose the "Milestone 3" plan. It will get take you through the entire Bible in a year and the New Testament twice. Try to read the assigned passages daily, but if you miss a day don't sweat it. Just move on to the next day's assigned passages. Note for Pastors and Teachers: Your yearly journal can serve as a quick reference for interweaving personal testimony and reflections as you prepare sermons and presentations from different scriptures in God's Word.

Step 4—Choose one gem or verse that grabbed your attention as you were reading. I underline those passages in my Bible. Write it out in your journal as your "S" Scripture. That will be the passage you meditate on utilizing the SOAP tool.

S.O.A.P.

- Write today's date.
- Write down the verse that caught your attention. (Scripture)
- Write down what you observe in the scripture, taking into consideration what was going on in the surrounding context. (Observation)
- Write down how you can apply that scripture to your life.
   What's God affirming in your life? What's God challenging you to change? (Application)
- Write out a prayer to thank God for His Word and to help you apply His Word specifically to your life. (Prayer)

The following is an example of one of my SOAPs:

SOAP Example By Brad Brucker

Bible Reading for March 16th: Deuteronomy 30, 31, Psalm 40, and 1 Corinthians 1

Scripture: Deuteronomy 30:19, 20a (NLT)

"Today I have given you the choice between life and death, between blessings and curses. Now I call on heaven and earth to witness the choice you make. Oh, that you would choose life, so that you and your descendants might live! You can make this choice by loving The Lord your God, obeying Him and committing yourself firmly to Him. This (He) is the key to your life!"—Spoken by God through Moses

Observation:

Moses is clearly laying out before all the Israelites a choice they must make: follow God and live a great life full of blessings or do your own thing and—slowly or quickly, but certainly painfully—die from a life full of curses. He's saying "Choose, choose,"—pleading with them to choose life. You can hear the pleading and anguish in His voice in the text. God's voice through Moses said, "Oh, that you would choose life and live!" Wow!

Application:

Every day we have a choice to make. God is the God of life—all life! And He longs for us to choose Him, cling to Him and His Word, as we pray and walk along the road. He promises if we do we will truly live and be blessed. He is the key to life. Jesus said, "Give us this day our daily bread." He didn't say, give us this week. Nope! Just this day. Yesterday, I got upset with Ann and said some things I shouldn't have. I actually chose a bit of death yesterday. Today, I will go to her and ask her for forgiveness and be a life-giver like God is to me. So, today, I choose life with God—today!

Prayer:

Dear Lord, it's amazing you actually give us a choice. You don't force yourself on us because you loved us so much. Help me to go to Ann and ask her for forgiveness. Holy Spirit, go before me and help her be receptive to my words and bring 100 percent reconciliation to our relationship. Heal her of the wounds I have caused her. Lord, help me to love you and others today with everything I have. I'm all yours, Lord. Do with me as you please. Help me to live today to bless you. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in my life today. In Jesus' name, Amen.
