

Sermon On The Mount

Matthew 6:19-21

November 18, 2018

I. Three Biblical Financial principles. The first is that our faith and our finances are _____.

a. There is a fundamental relationship between our _____ and how we handle our _____.

b. John the Baptist couldn't talk about _____ without first talking about _____.

II. The second Biblical principle is that _____.

a. If God is the owner, we are his money _____.

b. We should adopt a steward's mentality towards the assets that God has _____ to us.

III. The third principle: Generosity is motivated by _____.

a. God delights in a _____ giver.

b. Giving is _____. Giving opens our fists to the clenches that we have on our finances.

IV. There are three roadblocks to giving.

a. The first roadblock to giving is the illusion that earth is our _____.

b. The second roadblock is _____.

c. The third roadblock is lack of delayed _____.

V. Is God asking you to:

a. Make a habit of _____

b. Live on _____

c. Give _____ and _____