

Message Dec. 12, 2021
Revelation Chapters 1 to 9

I. Introduction.

1. Our initial reaction to the word Revelation.
2. Meaning of Revelation (Apokalypsis).

II. The Value of Revelation for us today is to:

1. Be sure Jesus is our Lord and Savior.
2. Encourage us to remain faithful to the very end.
3. Inspire godly living and obedience.
4. Bring peace to the tormented.
5. Wake up the complacent.
6. Motivate us to worship.

IV. Our response is to:

1. Make him your Lord and Savior.
2. Commit to remaining faithful to the end.
3. Make a decision to obey God.
4. Remain peaceful, and overcome torment.
5. Overcome complacency.
6. Worship with our whole hearts.

Resources:

Craig Keener, Revelation, The NIV Application Commentary. Craig S. Keener is a Biblical scholar and professor of New Testament at Asbury Theological Seminary.

Ron Rhodes, The End Times in Chronological Order. Graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary, professor and author of over 60 books.