

God is a Promise Keeper

Week 5 Homework

Preparing for the Study

1. Begin with prayer.
2. Read Genesis Chapters 16-21

Observations

1. Ten years after God's promise to make Abram into a great nation (many children), Abram and Sarai still hadn't had any children. What did they do on their own to move forward? Gen 16:1-6
2. What did The angel of the Lord promise Hagar about her son's future? Gen 16:7-12
3. How many years passed between Gen 12:1-4 when God promised him a son until now Gen 17:1? What was the sign of the covenant? Gen 17:11
4. What false idea did Abraham have that God corrected? Gen 17:15-21
5. Why was the Lord going to judge Sodom and Gomorrah? Gen 18:20
6. What was Abraham worried about in Gen 18:24-26?
7. What were the men of Sodom trying to do in Gen 19:4-5 and compare Jude 1:5-7?
8. What did the angels tell them to do Gen 19:15-17? As the destruction was happening, Lot's wife looked back Gen 19:26. Luke 17:32-33 tells us to remember Lot's wife. Why do you think did Jesus tell his disciples to remember Lot's wife?
9. Where did the enemies of Israel: Moab and Ammon come from? Gen 19:30-38
10. In Gen 20:1-7 What did Abraham do again and how was Sarah protected?
11. What happened after Abraham didn't trust God again? Gen 20:14-17
12. How long did Abraham have to wait for God's promise? Gen 12:4, Gen 21:1-7
13. What happened with Abraham's son Ishmael? Gen 21:8-21

Let's think a little deeper

1. Create a simple timeline of what major events took place during the year God confirmed His promise to Abram (Gen 17) to Isaac's birth in (Gen 21). Thoughts?
2. List the promises for all the overcomers in Revelation 2:7, 11, 17, 26-28 and Revelation 3:5, 12, 20-21. Are you willing to persevere to the end to receive this? Remember, our God is a promise keeper.
