Jesus Calling by Sarah Young

For many years, missionary Sarah Young kept a prayer journal, recording her thoughts and prayers. Then she decided to start listening for what Jesus might be saying to her in her daily journey. The journey she started encouraged her heart, along with thousands of others the world over. Her meditations became the now classic devotional, Jesus Calling: Enjoying Peace in His Presence. These 365 days of readings share the words and scriptures Jesus laid on her heart to share. As you read these words of inspiration and encouragement you'll be brought closer to Jesus presence, experiencing His love and peace.

James: Living a Life of Genuine Faith by Jen Wilkin

This study will challenge you to move beyond loving God with just your heart to loving Him with your mind. It will focus on answering the question "What does the Bible say about God?" It will aid you in the worthy task of God-discovery. You see, the Bible is not a book about self-discovery: it is a book about God-discovery. The Bible is God's declared intent to make Himself known to us. In learning about the character of God in Scripture we will experience self-discovery, but it must not be the focus of our study. The focus must be God Himself.

The God I Never Knew by Robert Morris

Who is the Holy Spirit, and exactly what does He do? Many people find the Holy Spirit mysterious, confounding--even controversial. Why is the third person in the Godhead--the one Jesus said would be the believer's ultimate source of truth and comfort--the source of such confusion? In "The God I Never Knew," Robert Morris clearly explains that the Holy Spirit's chief desire is for relationship--to offer us the encouragement and guidance of a trusted friend. This insightful and biblically-based book moves beyond theological jargon, religious tradition, and cultural misconceptions to clarify what the Holy Spirit promises to do in your life. It's time to experience the Holy Spirit in a fresh, new way--to meet the God you may have never known.

Are your thoughts holding you captive? Do they swirl in a destructive downward spiral until you are consumed with: "I'll never be good enough. Other people have better lives than I do. God couldn't really love me." Changing the way we think seems nearly impossible. And yet the apostle Paul tells us in his letter to the Philippians that conforming our minds to Christ is possible, and it's the ultimate goal for every follower of Christ. In this study, we will gain tools from the book of Philippians to transform our emotions, our outlook, and even our circumstances, by taking control of our minds.

You Were Made For This Moment by Max Lucado

Are you weary? Worn out by the bills that keep stacking, a virus that keeps raging, or a heart that keeps aching? If so, the book of Esther brings welcome news: relief will come! To be clear, you didn't ask for this struggle. You want to get past it. You don't know how much longer you can hold up. But what if God is with you in this difficult season? When life seems off the rails, remember this truth: the minute you bow your head to pray is the moment God lifts his hand to help. Queen Esther learned this truth firsthand. God gave her the courage to speak up. God used her to save the nation. And God can do the same with you!

Gentle and Lowly, The Heart of Christ for Sinners and Sufferers by Dane Ortlund

Christians can easily feel that Jesus is perpetually disappointed and frustrated, maybe even close to giving up on them. They know what Christ has done for them—but who is He? How does He feel about His people amid all their sins and failures? In Matthew 11, Jesus describes himself as “gentle and lowly in heart,” longing for his people to find rest in him. This book reflects on his words, diving deep into Bible passages that speak of Christ’s affections for sinners and encouraging believers as they journey, weary and faltering, toward heaven.
