Sermon: "Suffering and Mission"

Text: Colossians 1:24-29

SUMMARY

The riches of Christ in the gospel enable the church to live out Kingdom-multiplying mission through proclaiming the message of the gospel to all people and suffering for sake of the gospel, and for those who have yet to hear.

FOR GROUPS

When you read through Grace Church's value statement on Kingdom Multiply Mission, what resonates with you most deeply?

When you read through Grace Church's value statement on KMM where are most significantly challenged?

How do you think Paul is able to rejoice in his sufferings, or what does that mean?

If our attitude (both about & in/while) suffering is one of the best indicators of whose kingdom we're actually about, then what does your posture toward suffering communicate to others?

What are common roadblocks to your open, verbal, proclamation of the gospel (can be external or internal)?

How are you being encouraged by the truth that Christ is in you, and that is the hope of glory?

Would you consider joining a Grace Church church-plant sometime in the future?

Who would you most like to verbally share the gospel with?
