

SATURDAY, MARCH 20

Matthew 6:31-34

READ

“So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

PRAY

Wonderful Father,

For you do not offer freedom from worry. You offer a new life that includes freedom from worry and I praise you for this.

Lord, your indwelling Holy Spirit sets me apart as different in this world. For I am different from others because of you.

For I seek your righteousness first in the morning when I wake up and last at night when I fall to sleep. For I have been crucified with you, for I no longer live but Christ lives in me giving me freedom from worry so I can be consumed by your purposes. Lord, may my life be a magnet for you; reflecting a life free from the tyranny of worry.

I love you Lord. Amen.