Matthew 7:3-5

READ

"Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye."

PRAY

Wonderful Father,

Give me eyes to see and ears to hear my shortcomings and the ability to be still so that you can overcome them. In victory, help me not boast so that you may be glorified!

You say through your servant, Solomon, that the "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding" (Prov. 9: 10). Lord, burden me with this fear so that I may be light and salt for you alone.

For I know that I am incapable of judging because of the plank that blurs my ability to discern. So relieve me, Lord, from seeking the dust in my brother's eye. Let me be a beacon for you.

I love you Lord. Amen.
