“A People Who Believe Together” - Acts 2:42-47

Justin Richter

Discussion Questions:

1. In one word, describe what "believing" means to you.
2. The Christian message is both inclusive and exclusive. In what ways does that shape how we interact with others?
3. How does the Christian message provoke both humility and gentleness in you?
4. Read Acts 2:37-38. What does "embodying the truth of the gospel" mean to you? Or, what actions does the gospel create in you?
5. "A living church is a learning church." - John Stott
- What influence does learning together as a church have on our local body?
6. How can we live out the truths we've discussed today?
