

To be saved is to be called to change.

Faith demands internal changes of thought, soul, and long-held ideologies.

“The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may follow all the words of this law.” (Deuteronomy 29:29, NIV)

Revealed things: The love of God. The Plan of Salvation. The Gospel. The Life and Ministry of Christ. The purpose for the Church.

““Can you fathom the mysteries of God? Can you probe the limits of the Almighty? They are higher than the heavens above—what can you do? They are deeper than the depths below—what can you know?” (Job 11:7–8, NIV)

So Many Mysteries when we step into Faith. God is so infinite

1 Corinthians 2.1-16 NIV

1. Embrace the mysteries of God by faith

- The Mysteries of healing
- The Mystery of the Trinity
- The Mystery of Water Baptism
- The Mystery of Communion

2. Live in the mysteries with joy

- Instead of it bringing angst or unbelief, move to joy? Why?
- God is so much greater than us.
- He has protected us from Knowledge too Great for us to comprehend (we are limited).
- He is in charge (we can rest in his Lordship).

3. Respond to the mysteries with wonder and Awe

“You have searched me, LORD, and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you, LORD, know it completely. You hem me in behind and before, and you lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.” (Psalm 139:1–6, NIV)
