

SACRED ENCOUNTER

In every visit, every meeting I attend, every appointment I keep, I have been anticipated.

The risen Christ got there ahead of me. The risen Christ is in that room already. ...When I arrive and enter into the room I am not so much wondering what I am going to do or say that will be pastoral as I am alert and observant for what the risen Christ has been doing or saying that is making a gospel story out of this life. ...The theological category for this is provenience, the priority of grace. We are always coming in on something that is already going on...always we are dealing with what the risen Christ has already set motion, already brought into being."
