Darryl Mosley, Senior Pastor

Series: "Timeless: Life Lessons from Old Testament Characters" - Part 1

Message: "Joshua Depended"

Text: Selected verses from Joshua 1, 3, 7, and 24

Big idea: Being dependent on God is not just believing He exists—it is refusing to live one day without Him.

Path to dependency on God

1. Be _____ about God's plan.

- loving God deeply
- loving people well
- making disciples
- using my spiritual gifts faithfully

2. Be _____ to God's plan.

- Learn to manage my _____.
- _____ is a mark of living by my commitments rather than by my feelings.

3. _____ from my failures.

4. Remain _____ to God.

Reflection questions

1. Am I clear on God's plans for my life?
2. Am I committed to God's plans for my life?
3. Am I learning from my mistakes?
4. Am I remaining surrendered to God?

MY NEXT STEP TODAY IS TO:

- Read Joshua.
- How can I more fully depend on God in view of today's message?
- Identify God's plans for my life.
- How would I rate my level of maturity?
- What lessons am I learning from my failures?
- How can I remain fully surrendered to God through prayer?
- Trust and follow Jesus today.
