

Introduction:

*This is a scene taken in the celestial, from an Angel's perspective. Eternity hangs on at this moment.
The imposing question is, "Who is Worthy"?*

Revelation 5:2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy

I. The importance of Christ's worthiness comes to bare on this moment to end evil.

Revelation 5:2 . . . Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

"No one in Heaven, on Earth, or under the Earth was excellent enough to open the scroll or powerful enough to vanquish an evil and unrighteous world and establish God's Kingdom." - David Jeremiah

Romans 8:21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. (V.22) For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. (V.23) And not only they, but ourselves also,

II. What makes Christ so important in His worthiness, is His exclusiveness to end evil.

Revelation 5:3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

III. What makes Christ so important in His worthiness, is in His eternal existence.

Revelation 5:4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

IV. What makes Christ so important is His worthiness, to enter into an eternal moment.

Revelation 5:5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

“This is the focus and climax of the entire vision. When the Lamb (Jesus Christ) took the scroll, the weeping ended, and praise erupted in the form of a new song.” - David Jeremiah

Revelation 5:11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; (V.12) Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.
