

Psalm 19 “A Voice to Savor”

Main Point: God’s voice brings righteousness to all who long for Him.

I. We hear God’s voice when we savor His glory in His creation (vv. 1–6).

Romans 1:18–20, “For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. <sup>19</sup> For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. <sup>20</sup> For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. <sup>21</sup> For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.” Romans 1:26–27; Romans 10:18

II. We hear God’s voice in His Word as we recognize its infinite value (vv. 7–11).

Job 23:12, “I have not departed from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food.”
Jeremiah 15:16, “Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O Lord, God of hosts.”

III. We hear God’s voice when we long to be made righteous (vv. 12–14).

Leviticus 22:20; Romans 12:1–2
