faith

This week, we explored how Abraham followed God into the unknown, holding onto promises he wouldn't fully see. Let's look beyond our own lives and ask: How can our faith outlive us? What kind of spiritual inheritance are we preparing for the next generation?

Discussion Questions

READ Hebrews 11:8; Genesis 15:6; 2 Corinthians 5:7

- In what areas of life is God asking you to walk by faith, even though the path isn't fully clear?
- How does Abraham's example challenge your view of what it means to leave a legacy?

READ Hebrews 11:9–10; Romans 4:20; Psalm 27:14

- What has God promised you that you are still waiting on? How are you growing in faith during that wait?
- What does your perseverance teach others who are watching your life—your kids, friends, or spiritual family?

READ Hebrews 11:4; Galatians 3:29; Psalm 145:4

- If someone watched how you live today, what would your life teach them about trusting God?
- What story of faith do you hope your children or spiritual sons and daughters will tell one day?

Living It Out

Legacy faith doesn't come from ease or certainty—it comes through daily dependence on the Holy Spirit. This week, ask the Spirit to help you trust God boldly, live faithfully in the waiting, and sow into futures you may never see. Remember: your story becomes someone else's foundation.

Here are 3 Spirit-led steps to take this week:

1. Pray each morning: “Holy Spirit, help me walk by faith today.”
2. Encourage someone younger: Share how God has been faithful—even in the waiting.
3. Take one step of obedience: Forgive, give, serve, or start a new rhythm that reflects your trust in God.
