Courage is not the absence of fear—it's faith in action despite fear. God calls imperfect people and fills them with boldness to lead. We close our series with this truth: we are chosen to lead in courage.

Discussion Questions

READ Acts 4:13

- Why do you think people are more impacted by transformation than by education or credentials?
- In what ways has time with Jesus made you bolder in life or leadership?
- What specific habits can you build this week to spend more intentional time with Jesus?

READ 2 Timothy 1:6–7

- What fears or insecurities try to silence your leadership or voice?
- How can you practically "fan the flame" of boldness this week?
- What's the difference between boldness that's self-driven and boldness that's Spirit-empowered?

READ Matthew 28:19–20

- Why do you think baptism requires courage, even today?
- What holds people back from taking that public step?
- What's one way you can live unashamed of the Gospel this week?

Living It Out

Courage is cultivated through time with Jesus and obedience to His voice. This week, take bold, practical steps to live out the calling and courage God has placed in you.

Daily Action Steps:

- Spend 15 minutes a day in personal time with Jesus—read, pray, and worship.
- Identify one area where fear has held you back, and take a step forward in faith.
- If you haven't been baptized, sign up or talk with a leader today. Don't wait for "perfect"—choose obedience.
