

WHY SUNDAY SCHOOL MATTERS

Pittsboro Baptist Church · Discipleship Pathway

*"And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another."
— Hebrews 10:24–25*

Sunday School Is More Than a Class

Sunday School is one of the most significant — and most underestimated — opportunities for spiritual growth that our church offers. It is not simply an hour of content before the worship service. It is a community of believers committed to studying God's Word together, holding one another accountable, and walking through life side by side.

At PBC, our Discipleship Pathway calls every Christ follower to Know Him, Grow with Him, and Go with Him. Sunday School is where the Grow stage comes to life in a consistent, structured, and relational way week after week.

What God Designed Sunday School to Do

- Build your understanding of Scripture through guided, consistent Bible study.
- Connect you to a community of believers who will walk with you through every season of life.
- Provide a place where your questions are welcomed and your faith is deepened.
- Equip you to live out your faith — not just to know it, but to practice it.
- Support your growth toward the Mission stage: sharing your faith and making disciples.

Why Attendance at Worship Alone Is Not Enough

Corporate worship on Sunday morning is essential — it is where we gather as the full body of Christ to praise Him, hear His Word proclaimed, and be sent out. But worship alone was never meant to be the whole of our discipleship. The earliest church in Acts 2 devoted themselves not only to the apostles' teaching, but to fellowship, to prayer, and to one another's lives.

Sunday School provides what a large gathering cannot: the smaller, consistent community where you are known by name, where your absence is noticed, and where your growth is celebrated. Many believers who attend worship faithfully for years report that it wasn't until they joined a Sunday School class that they truly felt they belonged.

An Invitation Worth Accepting

If you are not currently part of a Sunday School class, we want you to know: there is a place for you. Our classes are varied in approach, curriculum, and demographic — from young adults to seasoned believers, from deep theological study to practical life application. We encourage you to visit, explore, and find where you fit.

Your spiritual growth matters to this church. And Sunday School is one of the most proven, most enduring ways we can grow together.

"Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving." — Colossians 2:6–7
