

The last 3 chapters of Daniel are like a glimpse of The Final Countdown ... Daniel shares some pretty dramatic imagery of the grand finale of history as we know it; conflict in the spiritual realm is mirrored by a world at war with itself. Is this just fantasy or a sci-fi plot? Life is a “choose your own adventure,” and God, as the author, has penned the ultimate ending of hope if we accept it...

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- How did God show up in your life this week?
- What are you thankful for?
- What is causing stress in your life right now?

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read Daniel 12.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What does this passage say? Repeat it in your own words.
- What does this passage tell you about God?
- What does this passage tell you about people (or myself)?
- How does this passage apply to your life? How can you specifically live out this passage?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.

- How can we help one another in our group?
- Who else (outside of our group) needs our help? How can we help them?
- Who should we pray for today?