

When God Appears

Exodus 19.1-8

The Keeper of Covenant Makes a Covenant

- There is rest to be found in God fulfilling His promises.
- God forms His people for a purpose.
- A right relationship with God needs a mediator.

Meeting a Holy God

- People must be purified to be in the presence of a transcendent God.
- The boundaries in our relationship with God communicate something about us and Him.

When God Appears

- The occasion for God's appearance tells us about who He is.
- Fear is the appropriate foundational response to the presence of God
- When God reveals himself, he conceals himself.

From Sinai to Zion

- God delivers his church into a covenant of holiness.
- The transcendent God dwells in us because of the victory of the resurrection.
- Fear mixes with joy as we work out the salvation that He is working out in us.

