

The Lord of the Frogs

Exodus 8.8-15

1

The Frogs

- The encounter moves to the halls of power.
- The frogs demonstrate Yahweh's reign over and judgment of Egypt.
- This plague forces Pharaoh to contend with his own need.

2

The Gnats

- Yahweh's declaration of his rule moves from the water to the ground.
- Yahweh declares authority over the land of Egypt, and forces Pharaoh to contend with his impotence.
- Pharaoh's magicians become unlikely witnesses of more truth than they care to admit.

3

The Flies

- The cycle begins again, but with an escalation in intensity.
- Yahweh shows his power by treating his elect differently.
- Pharaoh tries to bargain his way out of submission.
