

The Gospel Brings Us Together

Exodus 18.5-12

1

Our Mission to the World

- God goes before us in advancing the gospel.
- Evangelism thrives in a context of real tolerance.
- The believer's job is to faithfully tell the story of what God has done.
- The response of faith is a response of delight.

2

Sharing the Work

- The road to exhaustion is paved with good intentions.
- We are all limited, and those limitations will be part of our ministry lives.
- The church is a place of shared burdens both in ministry and in life.

3

The gospel draws us to the relationships we most need in the midst of a lonely culture.
