The Altar of Burnt Offering

- The altar is a tabernacle in miniature.
- The altar places God's people in the Holy Place.
- The altar is a "communion site."
- To be a follower of Jesus is to be graciously "burned up" for Him.

Bronze Basin and the Courtyard

- The basin reminds us of our need for a gospel for the whole of life.
- The construction of the basin is a picture of lives laid down for God's purposes.
- The courtyard emphasizes the singular nature of God's community.

Holy Things are Counted Things

- God numbers the holy.
- Counting things and people in the church is a priestly activity.
- God's tabernacle is extravagantly beautiful.
- God's tabernacle is the church gathered in Christ.
