

ONCE YOU SEE BEHIND THE CURTAIN

Psalm 48

The City of God is Great Because God is Great

- The greatness of the city
- The sanctuary of the city

The City of God Invites Us to Dwell in the Presence of God

- God's character is cause for delight
- God's presence is our story to tell

The Church is Zion

- The church is meant to be a beacon because God is present
- The church is meant to be a sanctuary for all peoples
- The church is springboard for joy in God
- The church is the space to tell the story of God

God's presence makes the church into a place of renewal and hope.
