Death & Resurrection
John 11:25-26
•
Death means:
• The world can go on
(Genesis 3:4-5)
• I can—and will—on joys in this world.
(Genesis 3:6)
 I have to to get what I want out of life.
(Genesis 3:6)
 My fight against death isand
(Genesis 3:7, 22-23)
Barra and the control of
Resurrection means:
 You are notbut you are
(John 3:16)
• Our sufferings areour joy is (2 Corinthians 4:16-18)
(2 Connunans 4.10-10)
We don't have to for this life.
(Matthew 5:5-10)
• Nothing you do in service of Jesus is (Philippians 3:7-11, Romans 8:28-39)
Do you this?

Discussion Questions

- 1. What did you find most interesting about the sermon this week? The most helpful, eye-opening, or troubling?
- 6. If serving Jesus is what truly lasts forever, how should that change your personal priorities?

- 2. How much have you thought about your own mortality? How do you feel when you do think about it?
- 7. How should the resurrection change the way you face the challenges in your life?

3. Where do you see death touch your everyday life? Perhaps in ways you didn't realize before?

Preparing for Next Week

 Read John 4:4-15. Think about this conversation from the woman's perspective—tired of the daily grind of getting water. Can you relate to her desire for a way out of the grind?

4. Would you rather be wanted or needed by God?

- What does Jesus mean when he says that his water will "become a spring of water welling up to eternal life"?
- 5. What are some of the fears that hold you back from serving God? What would it look like to trust God to take care of you while you serve him?
- Have you experienced this well of eternal life in you? What do you think that experience is supposed to look like?
