Are You Ready For Something Good?

In the world, who are we, the Church, supposed to be and what are we supposed to be doing? The Church is called and designed to be good for the world by doing good in their community. Sound teaching is good for the world, not just doctrine for doctrine's sake but actually good for human flourishing.

This June we are diving into how and why the Gospel is GOOD for the world.

We have a great set of sessions and workshop leaders, including those pictured on the front, as well as many others: Kip Lines, Julie White, Lisa Ruhl, Joe Hoover, and more! Get ready for energetic and interactive Children and Youth programs led by The Groves, Rachel White, Jack Holvey, Bethany Fussell and the Stoker family. There is something for everyone, of every stage and vocation or calling at the Northwest Christian Convention.

Come join us June 25 - 30, 2024, and let's explore what it means to be "Good for the World!"
