Title: Different to make a difference

Date: January 31st, 2022

Luke 16:12-16

Jesus prayed-and out of prayer the choice for the 12 emerged.

Why did prayer for help yielded such broken people?

The glory of God.

The revelation of weakness up close and personal relationships draw all weaknesses to come to the surface.

You're not supposed to be hiding your weakness you're supposed to be dealing with them.

It's my job to condition my soul for ministry.

It's my job to develop my emotions for my assignment.

The growth of patience

Wholeness through broken pieces.

My love has to grow. Love does not grow unless you're tested to act unlovely.

The growth of love is selflessness

The opposite of love is fear.

HOW RELATIONSHIPS GROW

1. The willingness to relate with others where they are.
2. Overlooking and offense
3. The intentionality of leaning into the awkwardness in love.
4. Becoming a connoisseur of growth -embracing the new versions of people
5. Abandon your expectations of others

The master key-put all of the responsibility of things getting better with people on yourself.

1. When you see others weaknesses compliment with your strengths.
2. Choose understanding over expressing annoyance.
3. What is my assignment. When you stick to your assignment you stick with the anointing.

4. In your giftedness choose modesty-someone else is proficient in areas you are not.
5. Differences revealed are not division, they reflect angles.

Anger reveals you are selfish when someone doesn't agree with you.

6. Do not use knowledge/influence to create division or bias.
7. Endeavor to find common ground
8. Remember the growth factor
9. Communicate your difference (angle) without the fear of rejection.

When you love, then correct people don't run from your leadership.
