DAY 1: HE SEES YOU WHERE YOU ARE

Scripture Reading: Luke 19:1-5 — Jesus passes through Jericho, notices Zacchaeus in the sycamore tree, and calls him by name.

Devotional:
Zacchaeus climbed that tree believing no one would notice him. The crowd certainly did not make room. Yet Jesus stopped, looked up, and called him by name. Not "tax collector." Not "sinner." His name. God does not define you by your worst moment or your lowest season. He sees past the reputation others have assigned you and looks directly at your soul. Wherever you have positioned yourself today — hidden, overlooked, ashamed — know that Jesus has already looked up. He sees you completely, and what He sees is worth saving.

Personal Reflection:
In what area of your life have you felt invisible or overlooked? How does it change your perspective to know that Jesus sees you there specifically?

Practical Application:
Write down one area where you have felt unseen. Spend five minutes in prayer, inviting Jesus to meet you in that exact place today.

DAY 2: YOU ARE WORTH WELCOMING

Scripture Reading: Luke 15:1-7 — The parable of the lost sheep, in which a shepherd leaves ninety-nine to search for the one that wandered away.

Devotional:
The religious crowd murmured when Jesus chose to go to Zacchaeus's house. They could not understand why Jesus would spend His time and presence on someone so undeserving. But Jesus was never afraid to go where grace was needed most. The shepherd in this parable does not wait for the lost sheep to find its way back. He goes looking. That is the heart of God toward you. You did not have to clean yourself up before He came. He came into your mess, your pain, your wandering — because you were always worth finding.

Personal Reflection:
Have you ever felt unworthy of God's attention or grace? What does the image of a shepherd leaving everything to find one sheep say to that feeling?

Practical Application:
Identify someone in your life who may feel rejected or written off. Make a deliberate effort today to reach out, acknowledge them, and remind them that they are valued.

DAY 3: GRACE FINDS YOU BEFORE YOU FIND IT

Scripture Reading: Romans 5:6-8 — Scripture describes how God demonstrated His love by sending Christ to die for us while we were still in our sin, not after we had improved ourselves.

Devotional:
Zacchaeus thought he was trying to see Jesus. In reality, Jesus was already moving toward him. That is the nature of grace. Long before you turned your face toward God, His face was already turned toward you. Grace does not wait for you to get it together. It arrives in the middle of your brokenness, your addiction, your failure, your running. Pastor said it plainly: grace welcomes you where you are, but loves you too much to leave you there. God's grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is the power that makes good behavior possible.

Personal Reflection:
Can you identify a moment in your life when grace arrived before you were ready for it? What did that moment feel like?

Practical Application:
Meditate on the truth that God moved toward you first. Let that reality fuel your gratitude today, and share that testimony with one person who needs to hear it.

DAY 4: AN ENCOUNTER THAT CHANGES EVERYTHING

Scripture Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:17 — Scripture declares that anyone who is in Christ becomes a new creation; the old has passed away and the new has come.

Devotional:
The proof of Zacchaeus's encounter with Jesus was not what he said — it was what he did. He immediately moved to make right what he had done wrong. He gave generously where he had once taken selfishly. A true encounter with Jesus does not leave you the same. It does not simply adjust your behavior on the surface; it transforms your desires at the root. The man known for taking became a man committed to giving. Whatever you have been known for before Christ, an encounter with Him rewrites the story. You are not who you used to be.

Personal Reflection:
What has genuinely changed in your life since you encountered Jesus? Are there areas where you have been resistant to transformation?

Practical Application: Choose one habit, attitude, or pattern that does not reflect who Christ is calling you to be. Bring it before God today and ask Him to begin the work of transformation in that specific area.

DAY 5: SALVATION HAS COME TO YOUR HOUSE

Scripture Reading: John 10:10 — Scripture records Jesus declaring that He came so that people may have life, and have it in its fullness.

Devotional:
Jesus closed His encounter with Zacchaeus by declaring that salvation had come to that house. Not to the temple. Not to the religious gathering. To the house of a man everyone else had written off. That is the mission of Jesus — to seek and to save the lost. Salvation is not merely a transaction that secures your eternity, though it does that. It is a living, active presence that comes into your home, your family, your pain, and your future. Jesus is still on mission today. He is still moving through the crowd toward the ones others have overlooked. Will you receive Him?

Personal Reflection:
Have you fully received the life that Jesus came to give — not just forgiveness, but freedom, purpose, and wholeness? What might be holding you back from experiencing that fully?

Practical Application:
Pray specifically for salvation to come to your household — for family members who do not yet know Jesus. Then ask God to show you one practical way you can be a bridge between someone you love and the grace that is already moving toward them.
