The Church Ordinances: Baptism

I. Does the Bible Teach Baptismal _____? (Acts 2:37-42)

1. Baptism is an ordinance instituted by Christ for people who offer a credible profession of faith in Him and who, in _____ to His command, are baptized.
2. This understanding of baptism is often called "believer's baptism".

2. Does the Bible Teach _____ Baptism? Cornelius (Acts 10); Lydia (Acts 16); Philippian jailer (Acts 16); Crispus (Acts 18); Stephanus (I Corinthians 1)

- Infant Baptism

View #1 - Baptism cleanses its recipients from _____ sin, _____ them, and incorporates them into the church.

View #2 - Baptism is a _____ of the covenanted people of the New Testament, just as circumcision was a sign of the covenanted people in the Old Testament.

3. Does the Bible Teach Baptism by _____? (Acts 8:32-40)

1. _____ - "to _____ or dip", and it signifies the act of being _____.

2. _____ - verbal form found in the New Testament

3. _____ - noun form based on the verbal idea. (ceremonial washing)

Our confessions on the doctrine of baptism

1. Baptism is an ordinance of the New Testament, ordained by Jesus Christ. To those baptized it is a sign of their fellowship with Him in His death and resurrection, of their being grafted into Him, of remission of sin, and of submitting themselves to God through Jesus Christ to live and walk in newness of life. (Romans 6:3-5; Colossians 2:12; Galatians 3:27; Mark 1:4; Acts 22:16; Romans 6:4)

2. Those who personally profess repentance towards God and faith in and obedience to our Lord Jesus Christ are the only proper subjects of this ordinance. (Mark 16:16; Acts 8:36; Acts 2:41; Acts 8:12; Acts 18:8)

3. The outward element to be used in this ordinance is water, in which the individual is to be baptized in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 28:19,20; Acts 8:38)

4. Immersion, or dipping of the person in water, is necessary for this ordinance to be administered properly. (Matthew 3:16; John 3:23)
