

Son of God, Son of Man

Chad Hutson / General Adult

Christmas / Luke 1:31–35; Daniel 7:13–14

The incarnation of Christ fulfills the roles of Son of God and Son of Man.

Unique Qualification

The angel's announcement of the birth of the Son of God reveals that Jesus is the one and only representative of God to man.

Matthew 3:17; 16:16; Luke 3:38; Genesis 5:1, 3; Exodus 4:22-23; John 1:1, 14;

Unique Identification

Jesus used the title “Son of Man” to reflect His identification with the cause of humanity.

Hebrews 2:5-8, 10, 14, 18; Luke 21:36, 27; 19:10; 9:22;

Unique Coronation

Both titles imply representation (God to man and man to God), but also enthronement and authority.

Psalm 2:6-8; Luke 22:69; Daniel 7:9-10; 13-14; 25-27; Matthew 28:18;
