

A person wearing a red long-sleeved shirt is holding a large, rustic wooden cross. The cross is made of two thick, weathered wooden beams. The person is standing in a field of dry, yellowish grass. In the background, there are mountains and a body of water under a sky with scattered clouds. The sun is setting behind the cross, creating a bright starburst effect and casting a warm glow over the scene. The overall mood is peaceful and spiritual.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, 18 while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.
