A Seat At the Table (Part 2) Luke 14:1-24

Intro: Did you know that as believers we have been promised a seat at both a wedding feast and a coronation feast? Luke 14 gives us insight into how we came to have a seat at the coronation feast, and some insights into what our character should be until then!

I. Christ's correction of the self-righteous

- A. The Call-
  - 1 The first invitation
  - 2. The second invitation
- B. The Condemnation-
  - 1. Extent of the rejection
  - 2. Reason for the rejection
- C. The Consequence-
  - 1. Righteous anger
  - 2. Postponement of the Kingdom
  - 3. No seat at the table

II. God's compassionate invitation

- A. The nature of the invitation
- B. The people invited
- C. The event they are invited to

Conclusion: As ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20-21) we have been tasked to go out and invite others to a banquet (Mark 16:15; Revelation 20:6), for the hour is at hand (2 Peter 3:9). We do so as we wait in hope, for the Lord's return. Longing for the day that we will sit at the wedding table and then at the coronation table. What a day that will be!
