The book of Romans 10:13-21 – Sent to Preach

We are sent to proclaim Jesus so others can hear, believe, and call on Him for salvation.

1 The chain of salvation

Romans 10:13 "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

SENT → PREACH → HEAR → BELIEVE → CALL ON THE LORD → SAVED

- People cannot believe in someone they have never heard about. God gives us a role in bringing them the good news of Jesus. (Romans 10:14–15)

2 Every follower of Jesus is sent

Matthew 28:19 "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations"

- The mission belongs to every believer. We each have opportunities to share Jesus in our everyday relationships.
- Where you live: God has sent you to love your neighbors and bring the good news to your community.
- Where you work or go to school: Your coworkers and classmates need Jesus. Even when you dislike being there, God has a purpose for you there.
- Where you play: Your hobbies, teams, and friendships provide opportunities to share Jesus. Keep your eyes open to the people around you.

3 Sharing the gospel requires words

Romans 10:17 "So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ."

- Our actions matter, and people also need to hear who Jesus is and what He has done through His death, burial, and resurrection.
- You can share how Jesus has changed your life, a Bible verse, or wisdom centered on Christ. Do not let fear of saying the wrong thing keep you silent.

4 Keep sharing even when the response is slow

Romans 10:16 "But they have not all obeyed the gospel."

- Hearing does not always lead to belief. We are responsible to share faithfully, even when someone does not respond as we hope.
