

The background is a dimly lit workshop. A window with a metal frame is visible in the upper center. To the right, there is a workbench with various tools and machinery, including what appears to be a drill press. The floor is cluttered with long, thin pieces of wood or metal. The overall atmosphere is gritty and industrial.

my mess

A Series in John

Disciples: John 6:1-13

How the mess looks to us.

My mess

Mark 6:35-36

And when it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, “This is a desolate place, and the hour is now late. Send them away to go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

A dark, cluttered room, possibly a workshop or a messy office, with various items like papers, a level, and tools visible. The text "My Mess" is overlaid in a red, cursive font.

My Mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

How the mess looks to us.

- not enough time (vs 4)

My mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

How the mess looks to us.

- not enough time (vs 4)
- not enough money (vs 7)

My mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

How the mess looks to us.

- not enough time (vs 4)
- not enough money (vs 7)
- not enough food (vs 8-9)

My mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

How the mess looks to Jesus

My mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

How the mess looks to Jesus

- Jesus knew what he was going to do

My mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

How the mess looks to Jesus

- Jesus knew what he was going to do
- Jesus was testing them

My mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

How the mess looks to Jesus

- Jesus knew what he was going to do
- Jesus was testing them
- Jesus meets the need

My Mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

What the mess can teach us.

My mess

Disciples: John 6:1-13

What the mess can teach us.

How the mess can grow our faith.

My mess

Own it:

1. Remember what God has done in and through the messes in your life.

My mess

Own it:

1. Remember what God has done in and through the messes in your life.
2. Be looking to learn when you face the mess. Pray that God will teach you.

My Mess

Own it:

1. Remember what God has done in and through the messes in your life.
2. Be looking to learn when you face the mess. Pray that God will teach you.
3. Be leaning upon His strength. Quick to pray and quick to remember who He is.

My Mess