Why are we dealing with current events?

- Our purpose for the Unshakeable series is for the gospel of Jesus Christ to be lived out as the solution for dealing with our current events.

Genesis 1:26-27

Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.” So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

If God has control over my beginning then...

- We are all created equal but not all the same. Equality does not mean sameness. Col. 3:11

If God has control over my beginning then...

What happens when God is taken out of my beginning?

- I have no more value than any other living being.

What happens when God is taken out of my beginning?

- I have no more value than any other living being.
- I view others within my own perception of reality.

What happens when God is taken out of my beginning?

- I will resemble that which I truly worship. Romans 1:18-23; Psalm 135:18

Henry David Thoreau wrote...

The gods we worship write their names on our faces; be sure of that. And a man will worship something – have no doubt about that either.

He may think that his tribute is paid in secret in the dark recesses of his heart – but it will out. That which dominates will, determines his life and character.

Therefore it behooves us to be careful what we worship, for what we worship, for what we are worshipping, we are becoming.

Romans 1:28-32 Actions against another human being...

And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done. They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. Though they know God's righteous decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them.

How then do I respond to people or events who reject that I came from God's creation?

How then do I respond to people or events who reject that I began as God's creation?

- BY LIVING OUT THE GOSPEL

Colossians 1:19-20

For in Him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of His cross.

UNSHAKABLE

Colossians 1:21-23

And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, He has now reconciled in His body of flesh by His death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before Him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.

UNSHAKABLE

How do I respond?

- “Continue in your faith” – relationship with Jesus
- “Stable” – grounded securely to foundation
- “Steadfast” – inward strength to remain true
- “Not shifting from the hope of the gospel” – many voices out there – which voice will I follow?
- Living out the gospel is far more than just intellectual belief. It requires of me to move towards those in unbelief.

Living out the gospel means I am an image bearer of God. This means that...

- I choose 3 people I strongly disagree with and to treat them as image bearers of God that need Jesus.

Living out the gospel means I am an image bearer of God. This means that...

- I choose 3 people I strongly disagree with and to treat them as image bearers of God that need Jesus.
- I speak of every person no matter their legal, mental, physical and emotional state as a beautiful creation that has been marred by sin who needs to be treated with respect and dignity.
