GRACE GROUP QUESTIONS

John 16:16-24

- 1) What stood out from this week's children's message and/or sermon? Why do you think it impacted you in a meaningful way?
- 2) How does this passage overlap and connect with Matthew 7:24-27? Why is it important for Christians to understand that King Jesus doesn't promise that we will be delivered from grief, loss, rejection, and suffering in this world?
- 3) How does Hebrews 9:13-20 connect and overlap with Jesus' message from John 16:16-24? How have you experienced Jesus as the anchor for your soul? How should that impact your testimony and desire for evangelism?
- 4) How does the message of John 16:16-24 fit into the overarching message of John's Gospel account? How does it connect with John's purpose from chapter 20:31?
- 5) What are some examples of the world (and even some well-intentioned Christians) taking the promises of God and perverting them? (Prayer of Jabez, God's promise in Genesis 9, Jeremiah 29:11, etc.)?
- 6) What has the Holy Spirit been teaching you? What "dead branches" has God been removing? How has He been pruning you in order to produce God-honoring kingdom fruit?
