GRACE GROUP QUESTIONS

1. Consider verses 13:14-17 and 1 Corinthians 12:12-30. Christ did not die for us and God did not call us to salvation to solely benefit ourselves. God could easily accomplish His will without us but amazingly allows us to be His workers. What are some ways people serve the body (both inside and outside Grace)? What role do you feel Holy Spirit is calling you to do?
2. What are some key aspects that you think Jesus is bringing up about serving?
3. Why, according to verses 18 and 19, did Jesus give advance notice of his betrayal?
4. What other examples can you think of that Jesus shared things with His disciples that they didn't understand at the time but would after His death and resurrection?
5. Contrasting verse 20 with verses 14-16, what two important, but contrasting, points are made about the one sent?
6. It has been said that we may be the closest a non-believer gets to reading the Bible. Pondering that and verse 13:20, does this change your thoughts on your impact on non-believers around you? Does this change your thoughts on sharing your faith with others? Does sharing your faith always have to be sharing Scripture? What other Bible verses come to mind in dealing with the inevitable lack of results you might see?
