Big Idea of 2 Peter: Assurance that comes from knowledge

Today's Big Idea: Even though false teachers can deceive many in any church, we have the assurance that Holy Spirit will protect the believers who are grounded in the scriptures. We can rest assured that the lies of the false teachers will be revealed and that God will judge them.

- Peter describes the false teachers so that they can be identified in the church.
- Their condemnation vs. 1-9.
- Their character vs. 10-16.
- Their claims vs. 17-22

GRACE GROUP QUESTIONS

1. What is Peter warning his audience against in verses 1-3? Why is he so upset by this?
2. Why do you think Peter references God's judgment during the Old Testament period in his letter?
3. Based on 2:1-9, what will be the consequences of God's judgment against the ungodly? How does the Gospel shape our response to this?
4. How are false teachers described in 2:10-22?
5. Where do we encounter false teachers/teachings today? What are some examples of these teachings?
6. What can we do as followers of Jesus to proactively safeguard against false teachings?
7. What does it look like for you to uphold truth, especially in a world that opposes any "ultimate truth"?
