Big Idea: Your Inner character must shine in relationships inside and outside the home.

- The loving, gracious submission of a Christian wife to her unsaved husband is the strongest evangelistic tool she has.
- A Christian husband is to dwell with his wife in an understanding way and treat her as a co-heir in spiritual things
- Outside the home, our character must be exemplary. We should respond to hostility with grace.

GRACE GROUP QUESTIONS

1. In this context - a believing wife and an unbelieving husband- what does Peter say that "submission" looks like
2. Which is easier to use to convince people - outward adornment, or inner beauty? Why?
3. What does Peter mean when he says that a husband should honor his wife as the "weaker vessel"? In what ways is he to honor her?
4. Peter list a series of behaviors/actions in verses 8-12. How do these behaviors help us reflect Christ?
5. In verse 9, Peter explains how we should not repay evil with evil. In what ways have you been tempted to respond to evil in the past?
6. What kinds of evil and insults should we expect to see in the world? How can we seek peace as a response to those kinds of things?
7. How can we better trust God with ultimate justice when we see evil in the world?
