1 Peter 4: 1-11

Big Idea of 1 Peter: God's Grace is sufficient for every situation.

Christ suffered for our deliverance and example for us to live: sacrificial to honor Him and point others to Him

Our lives are a living sacrifice purposed to glorify God by appropriating His strength and gifting by serving one another.

We are given these things (by God's grace) - steward them well.

GRACE GROUP QUESTIONS

1. Verses 13-18 deal with the topic of suffering. Peter and many early Christians suffered and were challenged because of their faith. How does Peter encourage them to respond in this passage?
2. In verse 14, Peter says that we are blessed if we "suffer for what is right", which seems counterintuitive. Have you ever felt blessed after suffering for Christ? How did it compare to how you might have expected to feel?
3. How can we hold tighter to our blessings in the midst of suffering?
4. In v. 17, Peter talks about how we can actually suffer more in this life for doing good than if we just indulge our evil impulses. Can you share about a time in your life when this has happened to you?
5. Peter says that we should share our faith with gentleness and respect (v. 16). What does this look like, practically? Why is it important?
6. In verses 20, 21 a comparison is drawn between salvation in the ark and baptism. What is Peter's point as it relates to baptism?
7. How does verse 22 serve as a comfort to a suffering Christian?
