

Titus Chapter Three

Paul is such an excellent teacher, admonishing the early church regarding behaviours that are profitable and those that can hinder the work of the Lord. These lessons are powerful for us today. It is always important to take notice when words or phrases are repeated in God's Word. Let's take a look at two words that could prompt us to doing better for God today and improving the world around us!

1. What two words are repeated three times in this chapter? _____.
2. In which verses are they repeated?
  - a. Verse _____
  - b. Verse _____
  - c. Verse _____

Write out verse one here:

-----
-----
-----.

Write out verse eight here:

-----
-----
-----.

Write out verse fourteen here:

-----
-----
-----.

Paul defines "good works" in verse two. List the four things he tells Titus to encourage the church to do and not to do here:

-----
-----
-----.

May we all be reminded to do "good works" today, and be blessed with a fruitful harvest in our homes, workplaces, communities, churches and lives!