""For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save the lost." - Luke 19:10

Loving the Lost: Khoransani Turks of Iran
Khorasani (kor-ah-SAH-nee) Turks live in the northern part of the Khorasan province of eastern Iran. Many are farmers who raise livestock and grow crops such as wheat, barley, and saffron. Others make jewelry and glassware or weave carpets and tapestries. While many learn Farsi, the national language, their heart language is Khorasani Turkish. Although education is available to all children, literacy rates remain low for girls in the villages. With no known Khorasani Turkish believers in Iran and no gospel resources in their heart language, Khorasani Turks need God to make a way for them to learn the truth about Jesus.

MONDAY-
- Pray through Psalm 17, 47, 77, 107, 137
- Pray that God will send Persian believers to tell the Khoransani Turks the good news of His love for them.
