“For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save the lost.” - Luke 19:10

Loving the Lost: Deaf of Southeast Asia

Jueri's life as a Buddhist was consumed by fear. "Darkness enveloped me with no hope," she said. Plagued by sleepless nights and fears of evil spirits, Jueri confided in a friend who suggested she pray to Jesus. Desperate, Jueri prayed for peace. That night, she slept soundly. After that experience, she learned more about Jesus and chose to follow Him. For the first time in her life, she experienced enduring hope. Though she initially struggled to understand the Bible, everything changed when she met Deaf IMB missionaries skilled in Bible storytelling. After learning Bible stories in her sign language, Jueri exclaimed, "Jesus became alive!" Empowered by God's Word, Jueri shared her faith with her friends and led many to Christ. Jesus transformed her life, freeing her from darkness and filling her with hope.
