""For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save the lost." - Luke 19:10

Loving the Lost: Kurds of Iraqi Kurdistan
In the 2015 edition of Loving the Lost, we asked you to pray for the Kurds of Iraqi Kurdistan. God worked mightily through your prayers. Dozens of Iraqi Kurds who did not believe in Jesus ten years ago, now boldly declare, "Jesus is Lord!" In at least two cities, there are now churches where believers grow in Christ and non-believers can hear the good news for the first time. Small group Bible studies are forming in other places. As more people meet Kurdish believers, they ask in amazement, "Is it really possible for a Kurd to be a Christian?" Praise God that Iraqi Kurds have more examples that show God's transforming power and show the worth of following Jesus!

- MONDAY -
- Pray through Psalm 119
 - Pray for more Iraqi Kurds to trust in Christ alone for salvation. Ask God to continue growing His Church among Kurdish communities in Iraq.
 - Pray for the Richmond Community: East-side of Richmond

TUESDAY

- Pray through a Psalm 1, 31, 61, 91, 121
- Pray for the Mary Lair
- CP Story - Daniel and Jill (Northern Africa and the Middle East)
- For 16 years, IMB missionaries Bill and Phyllis served rural communities in Northern Africa and the Middle East by providing access to clean water—drilling wells and installing spigots in places closed to the gospel. But when they neared retirement, there was no one to continue the work. God had someone in mind: their son Daniel and his wife, Jill.
- Pray for the Richmond Community: North Richmond
