

Day 30: The Battle ~ Walk in Victory

The battle may be fierce, but we know how the story ends. We are the victors! Begin to walk in victory today. Do not allow another day to pass with you feeling defeated, discouraged, or depleted. You win the war! You can begin to celebrate BEFORE you see the answer because you serve the God of the impossible.

The war has already been won as 1 John 4:4 declares, "You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world." The One in us is the Holy Spirit sent by the Father at the request of the Son. We have the Trinity fighting for us.

Celebrate now because you walk by faith and not sight (2 Corinthians 5:7). You may not see the addiction broken yet but it will under the weight of God's glory. You may not see that child serving the Lord yet, but he or she will. It is just a matter of time. Your healing is in the works whether it comes from a divine touch or through the wisdom given to people by God.

How do we proclaim victory before we see it? There are three main ways: prayer, praise, and worship. Psalm 46:1-3, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever present help in trouble. ² Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, ³ though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging." It may seem that all hell is breaking loose against you like an earthquake, but God is your refuge and strength. He is your help in time of trouble.

As you press into the Lord, speak life over your situation. Cease giving the enemy a foothold through complaining or reliving the difficulty. Begin to declare that victory is on its way. Then walk in that belief. Many times we have to walk by faith even when we do not see the end in sight. The light at the end of the tunnel really is daylight and not another train coming.
