

“God works in us and with us, not against us or without us.”

— John Owen

“Our whole person's active response of negative moral judgement against perceived evil.” — Robert Jones

“They are practical atheists, frantically doing what they can to provide for their own needs since they have abandoned the idea of a God who cares for them.” — Tom Schreiner

“There is something completely appropriate about this exhortation. What could be more natural than a child imitating his father? But such a father! Can we dare imitate Him? Paul is simply putting in a nutshell what Jesus had already taught the disciples: ‘Be perfect, therefore, as your Heavenly Father is perfect “ (Matt 5:48). Godlikeness, or Godliness, is of the essence of the life of a child of God. When people observe our lives, they ought to be able to see the character of God in us, because as His children, we are those in whom his image has already begun to be restored!” — Sinclair Ferguson

“God works in us and with us, not against us or without us.”
