

“Arise, go to Paddan-Abram to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father, and take as your wife from there one of the daughters of Laban your mother’s brother.” —Genesis 28:2

“The story of the Bible is nothing if not a story of divine providence. On every page, in every promise, behind every prophecy is the sure hand of God. He sustains all things, directs all things, plans all things, ordains all things, superintends all things, and works all things after the counsel of his will.” —Kevin DeYoung

“God’s personal sovereignty” —John Piper

“And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.”
—Romans 8:28

“Providence is not a minor theme in the Scriptures. It is not merely an implied truth, deduced from a handful of passages. The doctrine of divine providence is the soundtrack of Scripture. It is everywhere present even when we are not consciously aware of it...”

—Kevin DeYoung.

“If sovereignty is God’s power to do whatever he pleases, providence is the wonderful good news that this power is pro-us...Therefore, we can be patient when things go against us, thankful when things go well, and have confidence for the future that nothing will separate us from God's love.” —Kevin DeYoung

“He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?” —Romans 8:32

“Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau, your firstborn.” —Genesis 27.19

"Because the LORD your God has granted me success."
—Genesis 27.20

“Are you really my son Esau?” He answered, “I am.” —Genesis 27.24
