

“When the Old Testament says that God remembered, it combines the ideas of faithful love and timely intervention: ‘God’s remembering always implies his movement towards the object of his memory.’”

— Derek Kidner

“God is preserving the earth as a stage on which to work out His redemptive promises.” — Jeff Purswell