

“Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes.” – Malachi 4:5

“Preaching is a characteristic Christian activity. The word properly means something like ‘make known by a herald’ and indicates a message given by authority to the proclaimer, not a free composition of his own.” – Leon Morris

“Outward religion without inward renewal is hypocrisy — a tree that bears no fruit. God is not mocked by leaves.” – John Owen

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” – Matthew 4:17

“True repentance arises from a sight of the excellence of God’s holiness and the vileness of our own hearts.” – Jonathan Edwards

“John could plunge the penitent into water; but a greater than he must baptize men into the Holy Ghost and into fire.”
– Charles Spurgeon

“The coming of Christ always divides: He is either your greatest treasure or your greatest threat.” – R.C. Sproul

“I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not cover my iniquity; I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,” and you forgave the iniquity of my sin.” – Psalm 32:5

“If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” – 1 John 1:8–9
